

Life in Tents by Gaza's Beach

Many families in Gaza live in tents by the sea after leaving their homes. The beach is now a camp. Food and water are very hard to find.

Moamen and Zeenat live in a tent. Moamen fixes water tanks for money, but it's not enough. Prices are high, and they often have no food.

A blockade stops aid. People are hungry and scared. Zeenat cries as she can't feed her kids. She wishes for peace or an end to suffering.
