

Sad News in Manchester

A man attacked a synagogue in Manchester, killing two people during Yom Kippur. Police say it was a terror attack and are investigating.

Footage shows Al-Shamie near the synagogue before the attack. He was confronted by security and left, but returned in a car. Police have arrested.

Two men died trying to stop the attacker. Police are working hard to find out more and get answers for the community.