

Helping Jewish Students Feel Safe

Universities must keep Jewish students safe from harassment. The UK government is funding training to stop antisemitism.

Phillipson spoke to Jewish students who hide their identity. She asked universities to act. The government supports training to stop harassment.

Protests about Gaza have led to more antisemitic incidents. The government funds Holocaust education to help understanding.