

Hull KR won the Challenge Cup, beating Warrington Wolves at Wembley Stadium. Tom Davies scored a late try to secure the win.

The game was rainy and tough. Warrington led at halftime. Hull KR won with Mikey Lewis kicking the last points.

Hull KR lost finals in 2023 and 2024 but won a big trophy this year. They are also doing well in the Super League.

Warrington wanted to win their 10th Challenge Cup but lost. They last won in 2019. Injuries made it hard, and Hull KR won.

Davies' try was good. The referee checked the rules and agreed it was scored correctly.

Hull KR's win is big. They worked hard and showed they are top. Fans are happy, and the team looks forward to more wins.