

Israel and Iran are fighting with air strikes. People are worried it might get worse. The UN asked for peace, but some fear it could spread.

If Iran attacks US places, America might get involved. Iran thinks US helps Israel. If Americans get hurt, the fight could get bigger.

If Iran can't hit Israel, it might attack Gulf places with important energy sites. They might ask America for help if Iran attacks.

If Israel can't stop Iran's nuclear plans, Iran might make bombs faster, leading to more fighting. Israel may keep attacking to stop Iran.

Fighting might make oil cost more.
This means things could get pricier.
If Iran's government falls, it could cause problems like in Iraq and Libya.
