

Workbridge Closing Worries Families

Colin is upset because Workbridge is closing. He has used it for 29 years to learn skills like pottery and woodworking.

Workbridge helps people with learning disabilities get work experience. It's closing to save money. Colin loved it and now feels lost.

A petition to save Workbridge has over 2,000 signatures. People worry about losing the community and work experience it provided. The service will.