

The UK talked in Vienna about climate change, crime, and migration. They want to help with these issues in Central Asia.

The UK works with the OSCE to fight crime, help the environment, support women, and stop migrant smuggling.

The UK will talk about crime and migration. They will work with other countries to keep roads and bridges safe. They want a safer, greener world.