

Foreign Prisoners to Leave Sooner

The UK will send foreign prisoners home sooner to save money and make space. They will leave after serving 30% of their sentence.

New rules will remove foreign offenders sooner, saving money. This frees 500 prison places yearly. They can't return to the UK.

Changes affect some prisoners, not those in terrorism. 14,000 more prison places by 2031. Changes start in September.
