

Helping Indigenous Voices Be Heard

The UN says Indigenous Peoples should join meetings about their rights. This helps them have a say in important things.

Some countries make it hard for Indigenous Peoples to get visas and join meetings. The letter asks for help to give visas quickly and let them join.

Treat Indigenous Peoples fairly. Countries must keep promises on human rights. This helps them join in and share views easily.