

A cafe in Duston helps adults with learning disabilities learn new skills like retail and customer service. It's run by Spectrum Northants charity.

More cafes like this are needed. Only 5% of adults with learning disabilities have jobs, but 85% want to work. The cafe helps them learn skills.

Victoria likes meeting people and making drinks at the cafe. The job helps her feel more confident and independent.