

Calls to Sack Anonymous Briefer

Sir Keir Starmer is asked to sack a leaker. Ed Miliband and Wes Streeting were named as challengers. Sir Keir apologised to Streeting.

Some think Morgan McSweeney leaked news. Miliband wants the prime minister to find and sack the leaker.

Sir Keir praised his team and said leaks are bad. The prime minister's team said leaks came from outside and will be handled.