

An Air India plane crashed in Ahmedabad, India. It was flying to London. Many of the 242 people on board died. Families wait for news at the hospital.

Imtiaz Ali hopes his brother Javed, who was on the flight, is still alive. He won't believe Javed has died until he sees his body.

The plane crashed after takeoff in Ahmedabad, hitting homes. People are waiting for news from rescue teams.

BBC is showing live updates and videos about a crash. People are trying to understand how it happened.