

A 14-year-old boy was sadly stabbed and died in Manchester. Two boys were arrested, and a woman and girl were held for helping them.

The incident upset local people. Police need help to find out more. The boy's family is getting support.

Police are at many places like the Fairway Inn. Fran Hicklin is worried about knife crime because of her grandsons. She saw many people and police.