

Changes to Benefits for Disabled People

A new Bill about Universal Credit and PIP may hurt people with disabilities. Charities worry it will make many use food banks.

The Bill plans to cut money for disabled people by 2026. Some people will lose money from Universal Credit and PIP. This could make life harder for.

Groups want the Government to listen to disabled people. Changes should help, not make life harder.