

Prime Minister Meets President Erdogan

The Prime Minister and Türkiye's President met in The Hague. They talked about the Middle East and agreed to keep peace talks going.

They talked about Gaza needing more help. The Prime Minister thanked the President for supporting Ukraine and Türkiye's peace talks role.

Both leaders were happy about stronger military ties and talked about a free trade agreement. They worked together on important issues.