

New Picture Book for All

"Beyond Words" made a picture book, "The Cheeky Seagull," with help from people with learning disabilities. It's about a fun seagull in a town.

A book was made with help from clubs in Kent. People with learning disabilities used drama and pictures. 160 people tried and liked it.

Beyond Words makes wordless books to help people with learning disabilities share stories. Schools and health workers use them.