

Max Verstappen finds Formula 1 "annoying" and calls ban questions "childish". He will race George Russell at the Canadian Grand Prix.

Russell got pole position and said he has more licence points than Verstappen. They argued before, with Russell calling Verstappen a bully.

Russell is excited about starting first in Canada. He wants to do better than last year. The race is tricky with tyre choices and changing weather.

Mercedes did well in Canada because of the cool weather and track. Russell is unsure about the race as weather can change.

McLaren struggles with tyre heat in Montreal. Piastri is third, Norris seventh. Norris tested a new part but needs time to see if it helps.

The Canadian Grand Prix is on 15 June at 19:00 BST. Listen on BBC Radio 5 Live or check BBC Sport for updates.