

Cookies and Climate Change

The UK and others talked about climate change and human rights. They want to stop using fossil fuels to help the most vulnerable people.

The group thanked the Special Rapporteur and said 3.5 billion people are at risk from climate change. They want quick action to protect human rights.

The group helps people who protect nature and Indigenous Peoples. They want everyone to stop using fossil fuels and find new solutions together.