

Keeping Jewish Places Safe

Jewish people in the UK are worried about attacks. Synagogues and schools have high security. Volunteers and police work together to keep them safe.

Attacks on Jewish people in the UK have increased. Leaders want more help from the government to stop hate. Jewish people feel scared but strong.

Jewish leaders urge bravery and staying strong. Many volunteer to keep their community safe, not letting fear win.