

PM Meets Ukraine's President

The Prime Minister met President Zelenskyy. They talked about peace in Ukraine and agreed on more help and a future meeting.

They talked about making things harder for Putin. The Prime Minister said the UK has new rules. They agreed helpers of Putin should not hide.

GOV.UK uses cookies to work better. Some remember settings, others share content. You can accept or reject extra cookies.