

Ofsted Changes How It Inspects Schools

Ofsted will change school checks in November 2025. A new plan will make sure checks are the same everywhere, using different inspectors' skills.

All school checks will be done by Ofsted Inspectors with recent experience to ensure fairness and accuracy.

Inspectors will train on Fridays to get better at understanding schools and colleges. This will help them write good reports for parents.