

Changes to Disability Benefits Delayed

The Government changed benefits rules after protests. They will review with disability groups. Changes affect new claimants, not current ones.

A review will check how PIP is assessed. People with disabilities will help. It's to ensure fairness, not to save money.

Some worry changes aren't enough. Cuts to benefits are a concern. People with disabilities should be heard, and changes should be fair and helpful.