

Ward Closing at Woodland View

A hospital ward for people with complex needs is closing soon. Families are upset as they have little time to find new care.

Ward 7A has not enough staff and a poor environment. The care isn't good. They are helping families find new places for the patients.

Fraser is ready to leave but has no care plan. His dad is worried. The Mental Wellbeing Minister knows this is stressful for families.