

Scotland called up Ross Doohan and Callan McKenna for a match as many goalkeepers are hurt.

Ross Doohan, 27, played for Aberdeen. He might return to Celtic. Callan McKenna, 18, plays for Bournemouth and started football at 16.

Scotland's coach, Steve Clarke, is worried. They need more goalkeepers after Cieran Slicker had a hard time in a game against Iceland.

Scotland needs new goalkeepers like Doohan and McKenna as Craig Gordon is hurt. The team hopes they will help in future matches.
