

Sharing Good Lives Ideas

On 4th June, Learning Disability England joined a meeting in Parliament. The meeting was with a group interested in social care. People who use care,.

At the event, James and Gary talked about good care and gave Stephen Kinnock the Good Lives Framework for people with learning disabilities.

The meeting was about changing adult social care. Learning Disability England will keep joining these talks to make sure people who use care are.