

Helping UK Industries Grow

The UK will spend more on energy, steel, and cyber to stay safe and use more UK-made products in public projects.

Companies must pay small businesses on time to get government work. This helps small businesses do well and get more government jobs.

The government will spend £400 billion yearly to help UK businesses grow, create jobs, and cut costs.