

The Defence Secretary spoke at Utah Beach on 6 June 2025 to honour the US role in D-Day and remember those who died.

The speech praised Normandy veterans for their bravery and unity. Their courage helped make a free world, and their sacrifice is respected.

The speech said we should stay united in NATO, honour veterans, and protect D-Day's legacy for freedom.