

UK Talks About Stopping Bad Events

The UK spoke at the UN about stopping bad things like genocide. They thanked an adviser for helping spot problems early and said to act fast.

The UK is worried about violence in Sudan, Myanmar, and Afghanistan. They want everyone to work together to keep people safe and protect rights.

The UK wants the UN to stop problems better. They ask countries to help the UN keep the world safe for all.