

Mencap Talks About NHS Health Plan

Mencap is glad the NHS plan sees health problems for people with learning disabilities, who often die younger than others.

People with learning disabilities need homes, not hospitals.
Mencap wants to help make this change happen.

Mencap helped families share views on a plan. They want to work with the government to help people with learning disabilities.