

Trent Alexander-Arnold moved from Liverpool to Real Madrid. He called it a "dream come true" and spoke in Spanish at his welcome.

He signed for six years with a big buy-out. Trent played 354 times, scored 23 goals, and helped Liverpool win the Premier League and Champions League.

At a Real Madrid event, Trent said he is excited. He wants to win titles and show his skills to the club and fans.

Xabi Alonso, once a Liverpool player, now manages Real Madrid. Trent admired him and is excited to work and talk about football with him.

Trent joins Jude Bellingham at Real Madrid. They talked about Liverpool and Madrid. Trent said the club was a big reason for his move.

Trent was booed by Liverpool fans after saying he would leave. He found it hard but thinks it was right. He is excited about Real Madrid.