

Elon Musk is unhappy with Trump's new big money plan and called it "disgusting." He wants people to stop it.

Musk thinks the plan will make the US owe too much. He warned supporters might lose jobs in elections. Many Republicans liked it, but Musk's words may change minds.

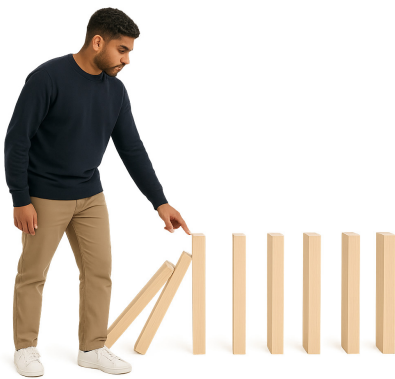

Musk might be upset because money for green energy is cut and a friend didn't get a job he wanted.

Some Republicans want to make the plan better. They say it's not as bad as Musk thinks and want to keep some parts.

Trump wants the plan by July. If not passed, the US might struggle with bills. Musk's words may make it harder to agree on the plan.

Musk's actions have caused issues before. His words now might slow Trump's plan and worsen US money problems.
