

Understanding the Tax Gap

The tax gap is the money not paid in tax. In 2023-2024, it was £46.8 billion. The government wants to get £7.5 billion more.

Small businesses often make tax mistakes. The government uses Making Tax Digital to help collect more tax and fix these errors.

The government will hire more people to collect taxes. This helps everyone pay their fair share and improves public services.