

UK and Argentina Celebrate 200 Years

The UK and Argentina marked 200 years of friendship with music at Colon Theatre. It was also a goodbye for Ambassador Hayes.

The UK and Argentina have been friends since 1825. The British Embassy will have more events to celebrate. Ambassador Hayes shared happy memories.

Guests enjoyed music from the opera Billy Budd. Toby Spence sang, and Erik Nielsen played piano. The event was supported by the GREAT campaign.