

News from Around the World

In the Democratic Republic of the Congo, fighting stops over 1.3 million children in Ituri from going to school safely.

WHO approved two vaccines to protect babies from RSV, a virus that can make them very sick. These vaccines can save many babies' lives.

Haiti may have big storms this year. Many people live where it floods. The UN wants to help but needs more money.