

Keep Support for All Children

People worry changes to education might stop children with special needs from getting help in regular schools.

Most children with special needs go to regular schools with EHCPs. These plans help them. Without EHCPs, more might leave or need special schools.

Save Our Children's Rights wants to keep EHCPs. Many signed a petition to protect these rights. Families need these protections to stay.