

Disability News

A new book, "Beyond Words," helps people with learning disabilities. "Caring Beyond Words" aims to improve dental care creatively.

Many parent carers struggle with money. NHS England has new rules to help people with learning disabilities.

The government has made changes to the Employment Rights Bill. These changes might give carers paid time off work. But some groups think changes to.