

UK Helps Steel Workers

The UK is making new rules to stop too much cheap steel from other countries. This will protect jobs and keep steel supply steady.

Changes from 1 July will protect UK steel makers from cheap imports. This is to make UK industry stronger and support important jobs.

The government will ask people about trade rules after 2026 to help keep UK steel strong and fair.