

PM talks to business group

The Prime Minister thanked the British Chambers of Commerce for helping the UK. This means more money for the NHS and young people's skills.

The government is helping UK businesses grow by making deals with the US, India, and the EU.

The UK plans to help businesses grow by lowering energy costs, investing in skills, and making new trade deals.