

Jobe Bellingham, a young footballer, is joining Borussia Dortmund, like his brother Jude. He played well at Sunderland and is now moving to Germany.

Jobe wants to be known for his skills, not just as Jude's brother. He likes being a midfielder to run and help both defence and attack.

Jobe plays for England Under-21s. Jude hopes they can both play for the main team together one day.

Jude played for Real Madrid and won many trophies. He hopes Jobe will also do well in football and believes in his talent.

Jobe might play against Jude in the Club World Cup if their teams do well. It could be their first match against each other.

Jobe's move to Dortmund is seen as a good step for his career. It gives him a chance to grow and show what he can do on the football field.
