

Sad News About a Car Crash

A road crash in County Louth, Ireland, happened on Saturday night. Some people died, and others went to hospital.

The crash happened on a dangerous road with bad bends and no lights. The weather was bad. A councillor called it a tragedy and sent condolences.

The road is closed for police work. If you saw the crash, tell the police. Traffic is using other roads.