

Changes to HS2 Plans

HS2 had problems with planning and cost. The government wants to fix it and build safely between Birmingham and London. Stopped parts won't restart.

A review showed HS2 had poor management and cost too much. The government will fix this with new leaders to make HS2 work better.

The government wants to change big projects to avoid problems. They want HS2 to bring jobs and make the country proud.