

Weight-loss injections help lose weight.

Some people pay a lot for injections. This is hard for those with less money. Some worry only rich people can afford them, which is unfair.

NHS rules on injections depend on location. Some want easier access, while others suggest focusing on healthy eating and lifestyle.