

The UK has heat alerts. Storms with lightning, strong winds, and rain may cause floods.

The hot weather and storms will affect the east of England, London, East Midlands, and south-east England. The storms start on Wednesday night and.

Storms come from a Spanish Plume, bringing warm air from France and Spain. Weather may change quickly, and more warnings could come soon.