

The French Open final is Aryna Sabalenka vs Coco Gauff. Sabalenka is number one, Gauff is second. Both want to win at Roland Garros.

Sabalenka won three big titles this year. Gauff, the youngest finalist, seeks her first title. Both play well on clay courts.

Sabalenka and Gauff have played ten times, winning five each. They both have one win on clay. Sabalenka's recent win in Madrid might help her.

Sabalenka plays strong. Gauff must work on defence and serve. Both are excited for the big match on Saturday.

Joe Salisbury and Neal Skupski will play in the men's doubles final at the French Open. It's an exciting event for tennis fans.
