

The Home Secretary is talking to the Treasury about money for police. Other departments have agreed on budgets. The Spending Review will decide funds.

The Spending Review gives more money to schools, science, and NHS. Some may get less. The government wants less debt by 2029/30.

The government will spend on new homes and transport. Changes to Winter Fuel Payments are coming. More info will come later.