

A US Senator was taken out of a meeting in Los Angeles after asking a question about immigration.

This upset many people, including other senators. Some called it a "disgrace" and "outrageous". The Trump administration said Padilla was being.

Padilla wants answers about immigration for California. He's worried about farm workers. He asked people to protest peacefully.

California's Governor and Kamala Harris support Padilla, while the White House thinks he wanted attention.