

Chancellor Rachel Reeves will keep winter fuel payments for most pensioners. Some think it might lead to higher taxes later.

The Daily Express says this change is a win for pensioners after lots of campaigning. Some Labour MPs like the change, but they warn the government.

Labour will spend £14bn on a new nuclear plant, creating 10,000 jobs and reducing fossil fuel use. This is good news for the British nuclear industry.