

NatWest broke rules by not telling 104,800 people the right overdraft charges and missing details in letters to 66,765 small businesses.

NatWest didn't keep a tool running for small businesses to check loans. They're fixing it and will explain how.