

The British and Irish Lions are training in Portugal for their rugby tour in Australia. Ellis Genge and Finlay Bealham are becoming friends.

The players work hard in the gym, have fun with BiL, and practise for a game against Argentina in Dublin on 20 June. Some players are missing.

The team is training fast for three games in a week. Coach wants everyone ready and safe.

Jac Morgan from Wales is excited to learn from his teammates. He wants to make Wales proud. He is one of two Welsh players on the tour.

The team will go to Australia. Their first game is in Perth on 28 June. The tour is starting soon, and everyone is excited.
