

David Hill's New Role

David Hill is the temporary leader for the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs starting 30 June 2025.

He has worked at Defra since 2019. He is taking over from Tamara Finkelstein, who left after six years.

The website uses cookies to work better. Some remember your choices. You can accept or reject these cookies.